Count Joschim Pfell, the German African explorer, gives the following account of a mysterious creature seen on the cosst of the Ulan district: "We often saw an animal in the water which we first believed to be a serpent, from its move ments, and from the fact that only now and then it appeared on the surface for a few seconds. Once, when we shot at it, we were surprised to see it rise out of the water and fly away. Afterward, we succeeded in obtaining one of the curious creatures. It was about the size of a large tame duck, with black plumage and a metallic luster. On its wings we noticed a few very light yellow feathers. The neck was very long and thin, and ended in a long, pointed beak, at the edge of which were two rows of sharp teeth. At first sight no head was visible, m. and 7 p. m by the pastor.
